

ACCUSER IS HELD IN $1,000.

Because of causing the arrest of three men who he told Detective William Nolan had brought him from Hartford, Conn., to Washington, and were on the point of having him come to stay by Black Hand threats, a man who said he was "Giovanni" a fugitive from Hartford, Conn., himself was held in Elgin Cell for carrying a revolver. The man he accused of being his god-father was arrested two days ago, and when he came to New York he was given a hearing by Justice Frank J. Francis and Detective Francis, a summary trial of six digits and passed out of court on a note to Elgin Cell. They told Magistrate Connelly, charges an interlocutor, in Harrison Court, that they were still holding the man, and that he had been held on a note at No. 120 Broadway, New York, and had come down from Boston on the Morris Canal

RICH SOCIETY GIRL DIES ON THE EVE OF HER WEDDING DAY

The Many Festivities Brake Down the Health of Miss Lydia Brown Nickerson.

Miss Katherine Schermerhorn of New York and Mrs. Conway Evans of Florence, Italy, were making an automobile tour of Germany at the outbreak of the European war. They started for the Dutch border and had almost reached there when they were apprehended on suspicion of being German spies.

Acting on orders issued by a German officer, women stripped Miss Nickerson and her companion and searched them. They were later released and the women thereafter apologized for the indiscretions that had been put upon them.

MAN INDICTED AS SLAVER ON STORY TOLD BY WIFE

NARRAGANSETT, R. I., Aug. 29.—Miss Lydia Brown Nickerson of Providence, one of the wealthiest young women in New England, died at her summer home here today after suffering from typhoid fever for two weeks.

On Aug. 1 announcement was made of Miss Nickerson's engagement to Henry C. Clark of Providence, assistant director of athletics at Brown University. The wedding was set for Oct. 4.

The physicians who attended her expressed the opinion that her physical condition became impaired as a result of many festivities arranged by her friends after the announcement, leaving her unable to combat the disease.

Miss Nickerson was active in athletics and the had given largely to charities. She presented a hydroplane to the Aviation Corps of the Rhode Island National Guard.

Miss Nickerson was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Nickerson of Providence. She inherited $6,000,000 from her parents. Although the young woman spent money lavishly and gave away large sums it is not believed her fortune was much impaired.

Miss Nickerson and two friends, according to her testimony, had gone to Lexington Avenue where the seven-passenger car, owned and driven by Harry Webster of No. 524 Riverside Drive, came out of Sixty-second Street on its way east. Motorman and chauffeur saw each other about the same time and both made a desperate effort to stop. The effort was unavailing and the next instant the two vehicles crashed.

In the automobile with Mrs. Mitchell and Webster was Pierce Weasley of No. 347 West Forty-eighth Street and Arthur Stengard of No. 328 West Forty-sixth Street. All four were flung to the sidewalk, the men escaping with a few bruises. Mrs. Mitchell, however, was rendered unconscious by the fall and when Dr. Wagstaff arrived with an ambulance from Flower Hospital he found that she had sustained internal injuries and severe lacerations of the head and body.

Before starting back to the hospital with his patient Dr. Wagstaff was called upon to attend Miss Emily Elkrich twenty-one years old, of 174 East Eightieth Street. Miss Elkrich, walking to work, was only a few feet away when the crash took place and the shock caused her to faint. She was taken home in a taxicab.

FIVE INJURED IN CRASH OF AUTO AND TROLLEY CAR ON LEXINGTON AVE

Neither Able to Stop When Chauffeur Cuts In Toward Railroad Tracks.

A collision between a trolley car and an automobile at Lexington Avenue and Sixty-second Street to-day resulted in painful injuries to Mrs. Doris Mitchell, thirty years old, of No. 347 West End Avenue, one of the occupants of the automobile. Passengers on the trolley car got a bad shaking up. There were no arrests, the police and those involved agreeing that the crash was accidental. The automobile was wrecked.

According to her testimony, Barber, driving her on Aug. 10 last, two days later he sent her into the streets. Because she failed to bring in as much money as he wished he stabbed her in the neck and breast, she alleged.

Barber is now in the Tombs, having been committed there after the attack upon his wife, who is twenty years old.

Assistant District Attorney James Smith, who has been making the vice investigation, said to-day that one of his informants, Nathan Seiler, an elevator man in a building in West Twenty-fifth Street, had complained to him of police persecution since his disclosure.

Mr. Smith said Seiler told him that policemen who showed him their badges, but carefully kept their numbers covered, searched him to-day, saying they were looking for cocaine, and that they would "run him out" for being a "stool pigeon."

Miss Nickerson and two friends, according to her testimony, had gone to Lexington Avenue where the seven-passenger car, owned and driven by Harry Webster of No. 524 Riverside Drive, came out of Sixty-second Street on its way east. Motorman and chauffeur saw each other about the same time and both made a desperate effort to stop. The effort was unavailing and the next instant the two vehicles crashed.

In the automobile with Mrs. Mitchell and Webster was Pierce Weasley of No. 347 West Forty-eighth Street and Arthur Stengard of No. 328 West Forty-sixth Street. All four were flung to the sidewalk, the men escaping with a few bruises. Mrs. Mitchell, however, was rendered unconscious by the fall and when Dr. Wagstaff arrived with an ambulance from Flower Hospital he found that she had sustained internal injuries and severe lacerations of the head and body.

Before starting back to the hospital with his patient Dr. Wagstaff was called upon to attend Miss Emily Elkrich twenty-one years old, of 174 East Eightieth Street. Miss Elkrich, walking to work, was only a few feet away when the crash took place and the shock caused her to faint. She was taken home in a taxicab.

The Evening World's Beauty and Health Column

Conducted by Pauline Furlong

Through This Column Miss Furlong Will Reply to Women Readers' Questions Regarding Exercise, Diet and Other Means of Preserving Good Health and Good Looks.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]

Pauline Furlong, The Evening World.

Dear Miss Furlong:—I am a young woman who has just come to New York City. I have been told that you are a great authority on health and beauty. Please tell me what I can do to keep myself in good condition.

Very truly yours, [Signature]